

PQ: Lucky Daniels

If I could have the body of any current model making porn, Lucky Daniels would be a strong contender. How do I praise its parts?

The Pouf Questionnaire

If I could have the body of any current model making porn, Lucky Daniels would be a strong contender. How do I praise its parts … let me count the ways. Great chest, yummy thighs, spectacular ass and it's convex and concave in all the right places and exactly the right proportions. Even better when he has chest hair. And don't forget a smile that could put a dent in the hardest heart. Even in cement.

Lucky is mostly a bottom and you can sample his delectations vicariously in any of his many films — click the link below to see what they are. He's done a heck of a lot of work for RandyBlue.com, but Kristofer Weston of COLT/Buckshot seems to have a knack from bringing out the best in Lucky.

Lucky took a hiatus from porn after the tragic accidental death of his brother in an automobile accident, which you can read more about in the interview. Now he's back, and better than ever. He has two new scenes in the can for Randy Blue, a new-ish DVD for Buckshot, Lucky Dreams (to be reviewed here this month) and Jet Set has just announced that Lucky will play the Anthony Weiner character in the new Jet Set spoof, Anthony's Weener, about the sexual tribulations of holding political office while having a sex drive that doesn't necessarily include one's spouse.

Lucky recently re-created his Facebook Fan Page, but Facebook wouldn't let me use the name “Lucky,” which they said was not a real name, so the fan page is called Lucke Daniels. Go figure. Check out Lucky on DVD and the Web

What's the best thing about your penis?

The best thing about my penis is that I have a really nice head that tastes like a lollipop!

What was your personal path to performing in porn?

I submitted some pictures to chiselmale.com for modeling and Randy from Randyblue.com contacted me and told me that they would like to work with me. I told him I would get back to him and I busted out a sheet of paper and wrote “Pros” and “Cons” on it and listed everything I could think of in both columns, for the rest of my life, because I realized that any decision I made in my life I had to be willing to take the bad with the good. And 4½ years later the rest is history.

What will give you an orgasm that makes you levitate?

When my husband licks between my hole and my balls, stroking it just perfectly with his tongue.

What fetish do you have that we might not see in your movies?

One fetish you might not see in my movies is a rape fetish, where I totally dominate someone and rape the crap out of them and they love it.

You're going to direct a porn scene. Who's in the scene and what happens?

I would have myself and my husband and we would be fucking at our villa, in the bathroom, at a club and it would be real sex with real passion in a 24-hour honeymoon-esque movie.

If you could spend 24 hours doing anything you want with any person on the planet, whom would you choose and what would you do?

I would choose my brother Chris because he passed away at the age of 23 on April 3, 2010 and we would go to an amusement park followed by the bars and just enjoy being able to hang out.

Share your weirdest come-on, either given by you or to you.

My weirdest come-on would have to be when a guy driving by in a car asked if I had a lighter he could borrow, while I was walking my dog and picking up his poo, lol.

What is the fastest way to get you into bed?

The fastest way to get me into bed is to start licking and kissing my neck.

Do sex partners (or potential sex partners) relate to you differently when they know you make porn films?

Well I have one sex partner, my husband, and we have very open and honest communication. I always make him feel like and let him know that he's my #1, so I don't really feel that he relates to me differently knowing that I make porn films.

What's the biggest lie anyone ever told you, or you ever told someone else, in order to have sex?

When I was really young I used someone else's photo as my own because I was afraid to use my own and the guy met me and thought I was hot, but was pissed that I had lied to him.

What's the most unusual or fun thing you have ever had up your ass?

A lube bottle that Michael Lucas kept squirting lube into my ass and having me fart it out.

What is it about a person's body that most makes you weak in the knees?

Their pecs.

Where is the most daring place you have ever had sex? What did you do there?

In the public bathroom at the White Party, and it was full-on sex going on.

At what age did you first watch porn?

The tender age of 13.

When did you lose your virginity? Who with?

I lost my virginity on camera actually for Randyblue.com and it was with Reese Rideout.

Is porn a career or a hobby for you right now? What will come next?

Porn is a career for me right now, but I am also dabbling in a few different things at the moment. I'm a certified personal trainer and I plan on creating my own personal training business and writing a book about the porn industry and the best ways that I believe to go about it.

What is the perfect sexual encounter?

The perfect sexual encounter is meeting a guy and instantly knowing you're meant to be soulmates because when you have sex with someone you're in love with, the sex is on a completely different level.

Share something personal or amusing that reveals your human side.

Every Sunday I scrub my entire apartment. I do laundry, wash dishes, scrub the toilets and showers, dust the cabinets and everything in between.

Which food makes you horny?

Ice cream cake.

Is there masturbation after death?

Well I sure know that I will be enjoying my masturbation time after death!

Extra questions

You refer several times to a husband. Are you using the term figuratively or did the two of you actually get married?

I use the word husband figuratively because my partner and I are engaged and we have matching engagement bands. So, the husband will be official soon as we're getting our domestic partnership until we can get officially married.

I read that you are from the Philippines, which is the most Christian country in Asia. Are you religious? If so, how do you reconcile that with making porn?

I'm actually from Wisconsin, but I'm a quarter Filipino and 3/4 German-Irish, and I consider myself spiritual where I believe in God. I reconcile that with doing porn by my belief that by doing porn I'm working and providing a service (masturbation relief) to many people, and since I'm still the same kind, generous, and humble person that my parents raised me to be, I don't believe that I would be going to hell for my decision to work in the adult industry.

You have a killer body (especially your buns). Do you prefer to be waxed/shaved or unwaxed?

I prefer to be shaved in certain areas, but I think body hair is masculine so I enjoy having some.

I am curious about your statement that you lost your virginity on camera for Randy Blue. Are you referring to anal sex or was that your first M2M sex of any kind?

My first time bottoming on RandyBlue was my first M2M of any kind. Crazy I know lol.

You disappeared after the loss of your brother. Did you intend at that time to retire or were you just taking time to grieve?
After the loss of my brother I disappeared to do a lot of thinking about life, because my brother was only 23. I wasn't really sure what I was going to do as far as porn was concerned, but I'm glad to be working again with my newfound perspective on life.

Is there a difference between making a porn scene for a website and making a scene for a studio?

The difference between making a porn scene for a studio and an online company is that there is less crew on site for an online scene and the scenes are quicker to make, for the most part.

Are there any websites or studios you have not worked for but would like to? Any directors or other models you'd like to work with?

After five years in the gay porn industry there aren't really any studios or websites that I haven't worked with that I would want to work with, and I don't really have any preferences on directors or models either.

How long do you think you'll work in the industry? Any aspirations to move from in front of the camera to behind it?

I'm not quite sure how long I'll stay in the industry, but I would say definitely not longer than five years from now, with no comeback planned post-retirement lol. And I don't have any aspirations to get behind the camera once I retire because I'm more focused on my personal training business.

How did your porn name come about?

I got my stage name from my dog (Lucky) and Jack Daniels lol.
