

PQ: Ryan Raz

Ryan Raz zoomed quickly to the best studios, thanks to a helpful agent, his sexual versatility and a willingness to get kinky on camera. The killer blue eyes couldn't have hurt, either.

The Pouf Questionnaire

Eight months ago, a friend's phone call led to Ryan Raz venturing in front of a camera to make his first porn film, St. Louis Cum. His appetite whetted, Ryan signed on with the Fabscout agency and soon found himself catapulted into the rarefied atmosphere of Falcon, Hot House and Lucas Entertainment.

A self-declared bottom at heart, Ryan is equally at home getting fisted and doing heavy watersports scenes. We talked to him just as he was getting ready to board an ocean liner for a Mexican cruise.

What's the best thing about your penis?

The best thing is once its hard, it stays hard until I cum. People are amazed at how long I can stay hard with little to no effort. Once I get excited, I stay excited.

What do you do when you're feeling naughty?

When I am feeling naughty I go to the gym. I know that may seem odd, but I do to a very gay gym at home in New York. Going there and watching all the hot guys lift weight and get all sweaty makes me feel even more naughty.

What is one thing you will stop having sex for?

Why would I ever stop having sex? Sex is a part of life, there is nothing that would make me want to stop having sex.

What fetish do you have that we might not see in your movies?

I think I have covered all of my fetishes in my movies. There are few things that I don't enjoy, and all the things I do enjoy I have done in my movies. The good thing about not being tied down to one studio is I am able to express myself in different ways. Each studio has certain fetishes that they focus on, and I have gotten to express all of mine.

You're going to direct a porn scene and you are one of the models. Who's in the scene with you and what happens?

I like to see people like me paired up in two different ways. Either people that have the same body type as me, or have that definite daddy look. All the kissing and foreplay is nice, but what I like is hard core fucking. I want to see the bottom being fucked like a whore and taking it like a champ.

Who would you swing the other way for, and why?

When I get hard I can fuck a girl sure, but there isn't anything that would make me swing the other way. When it comes to women I find their figures very artful, but not sexy.

Share your weirdest come-on (given by you or to you).

I was at a bar/hotel and I had this amazing looking guy come up to me and hand me his hotel room card. He then just said he was out of lube and I should bring some, or he can just eat my ass long enough that we wont need lube at all. I didn't have any lube, but he sure did eat my ass long enough that we certainly didn't need and lube.

What is the fastest way to get you into bed?

When I meet people the thing that turns me on the most is honesty. I hate those people who will say whatever I want to hear just to sleep with me.

Being a celebrity, when you have sex with a non-celebrity does it create expectations from your partner? Does your partner perform better?

People that I am with that have seen my work can tell what really turns me on. When others can know in advance what I like, it is much easier for them to give it to me the way I like it.

Is it OK to lie for sex?

I think its okay I lie for sex, but not for a date or in a relationship. If your goal is to get fucked by guy with a nice dick then go for it. BUT if you have to lie to go on a date (and get laid afterwards), then you are doing something wrong.

What's the most unusual or fun thing you have ever had up your ass?

I think I would have to say a glow stick. I was on a camping trip and one thing led to another. At least it made it easy for him to find my hole.

What quality do you most like in a trick? I like passion.

There are so many people, and so much porn, out there that doesn't have any passion. A person that can kiss me like they mean it and want me is what I like the most.

Who's the sexiest person you know?

This question is almost impossible for me to answer. There isn't just one quality or feature in a person that makes the sexy to me, it's a combination of things. There are so many sexy people that I find sexy out there it is hard to pick one, also what I find very sexy changes by my mood. One day I may find the scruffy daddy sexier than anything, but another day I may come across the soccer boy that makes me bit my lip.

At what age did you first watch porn?

What do you mean? I have never watched porn before. Okay all joking aside I first watched porn when I was 12. This was way before I could understand that I was gay, but I do remember being much more attracted to the guy than the girl.

When did you lose your virginity? Who with?

I spent most of my life denying my sexuality and trying to be "normal". I first lost my virginity on my 16th birthday with my girlfriend.

What's your favorite position?

There is something about me being face down in a bed with a guy on top of me that really gets me going. Besides it feeling amazing, it allows me to be submissive and controlled.

What is the perfect sexual encounter?

I love passionate encounters where the other person and I barely talk. I love going on dates and all that fun stuff, but some times its nice to hook up with a guy where there are very few words exchanged. Where you both work together so well that you can have a hot intense fuck.

Share something personal or amusing with our readers that reveals your human or personal side.

In order to truly understand me and my personality you need to see me at a theme park. I turn into a kid all over again, but the pervert in me cant help but wonder how hung Donald is.

Which food makes you horny?

I don't know if margaritas count as a food, even though they some times act as a meal for me. A great margarita where I can lick the salt off of the rim always gets me going.

Is there masturbation after death?

I had one guy tell me once that he is looking forward to what happens to us after death. If its true that all the gays are going to hell, he boasted that he would never have to masturbate again. What's better than millions of gay men in one location, it will be the most fashionable fuck fest ever. I certainly hope that I would not have to masturbate.
